South Range Little Raiders Player and Parent Code of Conduct

This code of conduct will be enforced at all games and practices regardless if it is signed. Attending SRTC events states your agreement with these terms and conditions,

PARENTS/SPECTATOR CODE OF CONDUCT:

As a parent or spectator, I will:

1. Support the coaches, players, and/or cheerleaders and help teach the value of commitment to the team, sportsmanship, ethical conduct, and fair play. These individuals are all volunteers, and their time and dedication to the players and cheerleaders shall be appreciated.
2. Support my child's team and help my child and SRTC (South Range Touchdown Club) make athletic contests positive educational experiences.
3. Direct constructive criticism of my child's team program to the head coach and/or association officials at an appropriate time. I will work toward a positive result for all concerned,
4. Accept decisions of the game officials (including coaches) on the field as being fair and called to the best ability of said officials. The officials are in charge of all games; their decisions are final.
5. Exhibit exemplary sportsmanship at all times,
6. Strive to make every football.cheerleading activity serve as a training ground for life, and a basis for good mental and physical health by being present to support the children.
7. Abstain from being under the influence of or in possession of and/or drinking alcoholic beverages and the possession or use of any illegal substance on both the game and practice fields.
8. Stay behind the designated spectator line and/or remain in the designated viewing area during practice and games. Parents are not allowed on field during practices without specific request from coaching staff.
9. I understand there is no guaranteed playing time in this sport. And will respect the coaching staff's decisions regarding playing time, starting lineup and all other game decisions, as they are determined to provide not only for the best outcome, but also for safety and experience levels of all players and competition.

As a parent or spectator, I will not:

1. Interfere/interrupt the coaching staff during practice or games.
2. Contact coaching staff or SRTC Board Members within a 24 period post game. This cooling off period is to allow for the focus of the conversation to be centered around creating a more positive environment for all players and spectators.

3. Criticize officials or coaches, direct abuse or profane language forward them, or other subvert their authority.
4. Criticize an opposing team, its players, coaches, or spectators by word of mouth, gesture, or by deliberately inciting unsportsmanlike behavior.
5. Undermine, in work or deed, the authority of the coach, Board Members or SRTC.

Consequences of Behavior:

At any South Range Touchdown Club event, practice or competition, any adult who verbally abuses, attempts to intimidate, is flagrantly rude to, or does not control their language or actions with a player, official, spectator, or SRTC board member will be asked to leave the event. He or she will receive a written warning regarding their behavior. If the spectator falls to leave upon request, law enforcement authorities may be called to remove the spectator.

Any adult that commits a second similar offense will be banned from SRTC events for the remainder of the season,

Any adult who physically assaults an official, coach, SRTC board member, or player, will be banned from the SRTC event for one year from the date of the offense. After one year, the parent may apply for reinstatement. If the adult commits a second offense, he or she will be permanently banned from the SRTC.

The term physical assault includes, but is not limited to: hitting, slapping, pushing, spitting, kicking, or striking in any way with any part of the body or any physical implement.

All penalties will be at the discretion of the Board and may be escalated due to the nature of the offense.

*As a PARENT(S), we have read, explained and helped my/our child to fully understand and will abide by the South Range Little Raider Player and Parent CODE of CONDUCT.
